

Dr. Joshua Long

Dr. Joshua Long currently serves as Professor of Economics and Business at Indiana Tech and served as Associate Professor of Economics from 2013 to 2022. He brings a strong background in all aspects of leadership, finance, and business to the American Red Cross Board of Directors. He has presented on inclusivity and creative methods for reaching a variety of audiences, demonstrating his commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion in Northeast Indiana. Dr. Long's other professional affiliations include:

- Editor, Allen County HamNews (newsletter for non-profit Fort Wayne Radio Club, Allen County Amateur Radio Technical Society, and Fort Wayne DX Association)
- Life Member, American Radio Relay League
- Life Member, Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association