

Vince Kovatch, KAR Auction Services

Vince is a three-time graduate of Indiana University – Bloomington. He received his Bachelor’s degree in Marketing and an MBA in Accounting and Finance from the Kelley School of Business. He also received his J.D. from the Maurer School of Law. Vince began his career in Indianapolis as a tax attorney with Katz, Sapper & Miller and later developed his commercial transaction skills with PwC and Deloitte in New York City and Chicago, respectively.

Vince returned to Indianapolis to take a position with KAR Global. Over the last six years he has held several roles at the company, including Strategic Initiatives Manager, Director of Business Analytics and Vice President of Reconditioning Services. Vince currently works with some of KAR’s largest clients as Senior Director of Sales.

Vince began working with the American Red Cross while attending high school in Kentucky. Vince continued his involvement with the Red Cross throughout college and beyond.